The Marie Curie Cancer Care Predator Cup

Sunday October 31, 2010

The Marie Curie Cancer Care Predator Cup is a premier fishing tournament, targeting pike and zander. It is an event open to anglers of all abilities and ages and has raised thousands of pounds for charity. Run in association with The Pike Anglers' Club of Great Britain and endorsed by top celebrity angler Eddie Turner, the tournament will see anglers from around the UK taking part.

Match conditions

- Pike and zander only will be considered in this tournament.
- Artificial lures or dead bait only. Strictly NO live bait.
- Two rods per angler. A third rod can be tackled up for lure purposes.
- Anglers must use a retaining sack, forceps, unhooking mat and weigh sling.
- No pike or zander to be kept in keep nets at any time.
- All junior entrants (under 16 years) must be accompanied by a guardian.
- There will be prizes for 1st, 2nd and 3rd places. Best Pike and Best Zander.
- The marshalls' decision is final.

The Pike Anglers' Club (PAC) of Great Britain

The PAC has been active in the protection and promotion of pike and pike fishing for over 30 years.
